

Traffic Lights

Lv14

Our self driving car will automatically detect upcoming traffic lights and receives information on their state over a radio signal. If you run the red light, you're going to get a ticket for reckless driving!

Additional Server Message:

trafficlight <distance> [<state> <remaining-time>]

distance

the distance to the next traffic light in meters (2 decimals)

state

"Green", "Yellow", "Red", "RedYellow"

remaining-time

time until next green phase starts, or time until current green phase ends
in seconds (2 decimals)

If there is no traffic light in front of you, distance will be 0 and state and remaining-time will not be given.
